27 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

28 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the forgotten 29 component of the 1993 education reform legislation was that the 30 legislature was going to provide greater flexibility for school 31 districts and educators. The legislature further finds that the 32 legislature has made several unsuccessful attempts to whittle away at 33 the state mandates upon local school districts. The legislature
34 intends to improve public education in Washington by strengthening 35 local control and repealing the state education code, except to provide 36 each school board of directors broad, discretionary power to enable

1 school districts to be efficient and effective in teaching the public
2 school students of Washington state. The legislature further intends 3 that all future state laws or rules addressing education be grounded in 4 a philosophy of local control.

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The following acts or parts of acts, as now
6 existing or hereafter amended, are each repealed, effective May 1,
